

2019 Denise Adams Educational Scholarship Application

Purpose

To support and recognize a professional commitment to improving vascular access practice through continuing education.

Scholarship

AVA Scientific Meeting registration fee for the main conference. (pre and post conference excluded) and hotel registration for 4 nights (not to exceed $149 per night). All other costs of attending will be the responsibility of the recipient including AVA membership dues. NORVAN will reimburse the recipient with a check after attending the conference upon submitting appropriate receipts and proof of attendance. A 1099-misc tax form will be provided at year's end.

Eligible Candidates

NORVAN members in good standing (officers, board members and prior recipients excluded). Member must have attended at least one NORVAN meeting in the prior 12 months.

Application Process

Submit a summary of professional goals in the field of vascular access and how attending the AVA Scientific meeting will help achieve those goals. Recipient will be selected by review of the NORVAN Scholarship Committee from all eligible applications submitted.

Applications are to be submitted by email to info@norvan1.org please put "scholarship" in the subject line.

Deadline to submit application

June 15, 2019

Winner to be announced on

June 25, 2019

2019 Denise Adams Educational Scholarship Application

Full Name :

Credentials, Certifications :

Facility :

Position :

Home Address :

Phone number :

Email address :

Describe how attending the AVA meeting will help achieve your professional goals :